

New Grant Funds Available

for Your Community Environmental & Health Project

Philanthropy Northwest invites applications for our Thriving Communities grants! We will be distributing $48 million in grants over the next three years to communities and tribal nations in Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington. These funds are intended for projects that address a range of environmental issues and promote healthy communities.

Award Types

DEVELOPMENT

Award: Up to $350,000

Length of grant: 2 years

Example projects:

- Blueprints, schematics or permitting
- Public outreach and education on environmental issues
- Land purchase
- Project implementation, like improving healthy food access or reducing air or water pollution

PLANNING

Award: Up to $250,000

Length of grant: 1–2 years

Example projects:

- Partnership building with community
- Public outreach and education on environmental issues
- Community trainings
- Community involvement projects, like cleaning up a vacant lot

ASSESSMENT

Award: Up to $150,000

Length of grant: 1 year

Example projects:

- Environmental testing and monitoring
- Qualitative or quantitative research
- Surveys or studies
- Public outreach and education on environmental issues

Eligibility

Tribal nations, nonprofits, local governments and higher education institutions are eligible to apply.

For additional information, scan or click on the QR code.

