The Common Grant Application Form was developed by a committee of Philanthropy Northwest in 1998 to facilitate the application process for grantmakers and grantseekers in the Northwest. Today, the Common Grant Application is mainly used as a reference and as a tool to prepare for grantwriting. Before you submit a Common Grant Application to a foundation, be sure to check with them to see if they accept the Common Grant Application, and if so, whether they require any additional supporting materials.

- Applications often must be accompanied by a cover letter (no more than one page) in which you state your request and proposed use of funds. This letter should generally be signed by your executive director and your board president.

- Fill out the application form completely.
